amendment: "Community volunteers will be welcome to apply for additional terms, which will only be granted if there are insufficient applicants to fill the expiring terms, or the City Council deems it to be in the City's best interest to continue an appointment beyond two terms." He further suggested language that Appointees shall be eligible to serve two terms, with a second term approved automatically if the appointee is interested in continuing on the board or commission, except when the member exhibits:

- Poor attendance*
- Lack of participation in meetings*
