

Reports

What types of reports can I make online?

The police department currently accepts reports for vandalism, vandalism to automobiles, theft, theft from an automobiles, and fraud. Reports can be filed online when solvability is low and/or when suspect information is not known. If you are unsure if you should make a report online, you can call the non-emergency number at 703-257-8000 and request to speak with an officer about the incident. Online reporting is not a replacement for calling the police for the above listed incidents. If a citizen wishes to report any crime directly to a police officer, call 911 or non-emergency at 703-257-8000.

How do I obtain a copy of a police report?

If you have filed a police report, you may go to Manassas City Police headquarters located at 9518 Fairview Avenue, Manassas, VA 20110, Records Section to make a request for a public copy of the report. Police reports provided to citizens are limited in content in compliance with Virginia FOIA law, and fully unredacted police reports are only provided under court ordered subpoena. There is no fee associated with obtaining a public copy of a police report.

How do I obtain a copy of an accident report?

To obtain a copy of an accident report, please go to www.crashdocs.org. You will need the accident report number provided by the police officer, the last name of the involved party, and the date of the accident. Police accident reports are only completed for accidents resulting in injury or with damage in excess of $1,500.

What languages are supported for filing reports online?

Currently the only language supported online is English. If you would like to file a police report in a language other than English, for non-emergency reports call 703-257-8000 or for an emergency dial 911.
